

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

LEHI.

Mrs. Julia A. Bick of Blaine county, Idaho, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rhoads, of this city.

The Ladies' Relief society of the Alliance held a conference here Friday. There were many visitors from outside towns.

Miss Ethel Hardy of Salt Lake City is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hardy. Wednesday evening the friends of James Taylor helped him celebrate his fiftieth birthday at his home. Luncheon was served and a program of amusements interspersed.

Miss Lizzie Anderson and Ernest Shelby were married and tendered a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anderson, professor R. L. Woodward and M. I. Bushman of the Mapleton schools were visitors in Lehi Monday.

Alma Paxman of Provo was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Sharp this week. Mrs. E. F. Goodspeed of Oakdale, Cal., is spending a month with her mother, Mrs. R. L. Brown.

Mrs. Pauline Tester of Blaine, Ariz., is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Christina Harrison.

Bishop Henry Lewis returned Sunday from a two weeks' visit to Oquirrh. The ladies' relief and Albert Proctor were married Wednesday. They will make their home in Lehi.

The second ward Kermis committee will give a beautiful gold watch to the most popular lady, the result to be determined by a voting contest.

Charles Goates and wife left this week for Toiyah, where Mr. Goates will accept a position with the limestone quarry. Foreman Ala Larson of the central experimental station spent Monday at the county seat.

Mrs. Joseph A. Dorton spent the past two weeks with her son, David, in Garland, returning home Wednesday.

Mrs. John Russon spent several days this week visiting relatives in Provo. Miss John Rudman of Brigham Junction returned home this week after a week's visit with her mother here. Miss Woodhouse returned Wednesday from a visit with friends in Salt Lake City.

George A. Smith and wife of Salt Lake City spent Sunday as guests of Senator and Mrs. John Y. Smith.

Mrs. Sarah Berry and Mrs. M. Bennett of Cedar Fort spent the week in Lehi as guests of their sister, Mrs. Katherine Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Royle, Jr., removed to Knightsville this week. The third-year high school students gave a delightful Halloween party at the home of Jessie Butts Friday evening.

Postmaster Peters of American Fork was the guest of Postmaster Ross Thursday.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Bradshaw of Magnolia, Canada, are visiting relatives in Lehi. Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw are visiting at the present time for the purpose of placing two of their sons in the L. D. S. university.

Halloween parties given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Jennie Banks to the public school teachers; Mrs. Margaret Clark to a number of friends, and Mrs. Mel Southern to Duicic-Webb at the home of Miss Webb.

PARK CITY.

Wednesday night at the lodge rooms, the Pythian Sisters entertained the Knights of Pythias at a "crystal parlor." A well prepared musical program was rendered, after which cards were played until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

W. W. Armstrong and Sherman Farnsworth were passengers to Park City last Wednesday morning.

Joseph McCay of All Hallows college was a visitor to Park City on Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Smith entertained the Breeze Whist Card club at her home Friday night.

Mrs. Charles Heath and daughter, Miss Dorothy, arrived in Park City Tuesday from their home in North Yakima, Wash., to visit for a month with Mrs. Heath's sister, Mrs. Fred Smith.

Mrs. Dr. Platt entertained Mrs. L. E. Hubbard, Mrs. Henry Fares and Miss Miriam Hubbard at dinner on Monday.

Miss Helen Mullen returned to her home in Chicago this week after spending two weeks in Park City the guest of Mrs. J. B. Murphy.

Emmett Shields and Richard Krieger of All Hallows college spent Saturday and Sunday in Park City with John Shields and family.

The members of the Forget-me-not club entertained their friends Saturday at a Halloween party in the I. O. O. F. hall. The hall was decorated in jack-o'-lanterns and all kinds of Halloween devices. In several corners were fortune-telling booths. Dancing was indulged in and a Halloween lunch was served. Each guest went home pronouncing their hosts ideal entertainers.

Blanche Deighton, who is attending the University of Utah, spent Saturday at Park City visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Deighton.

Mrs. John Prisk entertained the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church Wednesday at her home on Park avenue.

Miss Violet Wright went to Salt Lake Sunday for a short visit.

The ladies of the congregational church are preparing to serve an election dinner and luncheon in the parlors of the church next Tuesday.

Miss Jane Nimmo spent Sunday in Park City with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nimmo.

Mrs. Julius Frankel entertained Mrs. L. E. Hubbard and daughter, Miss Miriam, at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Barnicot returned to her home in Park City Wednesday, after a two months' visit in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Ed P. Evans came to Park City Wednesday to remain for the winter. The Kensington club met at the home of Mrs. Jack Welch Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. J. W. Thompson, Mrs. O. W. Allen, Mrs. A. P. Slichter, Mrs. R. J. McLeary, Mrs. Frank McEwan, Mrs. J. C. O'Hara, Mrs. Garvey, Ed Huribut and Mrs. O. C. Lockhart. The club meets in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Ed Huribut.

Mrs. P. F. Tallon and children returned to their home in Butte, Mont., Saturday, after a pleasant three weeks' visit with Mrs. Tallon's mother, Mrs. Joseph Durkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keath of Nova Scotia arrived in Park City Friday, where they will make their home.

Tuesday evening Mrs. E. J. Begees entertained Mrs. L. E. Hubbard and daughter, Miss Miriam, at dinner.

Jennie Wilson returned from Evansville, Wyo., Sunday.

About fourteen young people surprised Miss Jane Nimmo at a Halloween party at the Powers ranch in Snyderville Friday night. All sorts of games were indulged in and delicious refreshments were served.

Henry Welsh returned from the east Monday after a short visit.

Wednesday noon Mrs. Smith entertained Mrs. L. E. Hubbard, Mrs. Charles Heath, Misses Miriam Hubbard and Dorothy Heath at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hubbard and daughter, Miss Miriam, went to Salt Lake Wednesday, where they will make their home.

The boys of the junior class of the Park City High school entertained the girls of the class at a theatre party Friday. Refreshments were served at the home of Bert Delighton.

Messrs. Painter and Putnam of All Hallows college visited in Park City Saturday.

Miss Emma Louis was agreeably surprised at her home Friday night by a Halloween party, planned and successfully carried out by Etoi Martin, Ruby Cushing and Sarah Berry. Games were played and the usual Halloween luncheon served.

Miss Margaret Jennings returned home Sunday after a very pleasant visit in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chartrand and children arrived here this morning for a prolonged visit with Mrs. Chartrand's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pearson.

Monday evening the pupils of St. Mary's school and the members of the Catholic Sunday school class were entertained at the motion pictures by the management of the Dewey Amusement company. The picture show proved to be a rare treat for the children, and the Sisters of the Holy Cross are duly thankful to the theatre people for so kindly remembering them.

Miss Margaret Jennings returned home Sunday after a very pleasant visit in Salt Lake City.

The members of the Tennis club entertained their friends at a Halloween party Friday night at the I. O. O. F. hall. Jack-o'-lanterns and weird pictures were used. All the guests went with sheets over their heads and dressed as ghosts. Fortunes were told by witches and dancing was indulged in.

A most delicious Halloween supper was served by Misses Frances Shields, Tessie McLaughlin, Jennie Sherman and Emily Foster. A delightful time was had by all present.

Joe Brannell was a passenger to Salt Lake Friday.

Roy Carpenter and Ezra Robertson left Friday afternoon for a mission through the middle states.

MURRAY.

One of the most delightful parties of the past week was the Halloween party given at the Crocker Friday evening.

The large hall was elaborately decorated for the occasion in the usual Halloween manner. The punch was served from a booth in the far corner during the evening. Spook dances were the order of the evening. A large crowd of dance lovers gathered and the evening was pronounced a huge success by all who attended.

The marriage of Miss Lenora Nuttall of Salt Lake City and George B. Andrus of Murray took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A wedding reception was tendered the contracting couple, after which the young people left for the south, to be away part of the winter. When they return, a reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents at Union, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes will make their home in Millard, near Fourteenth South street. Mrs. Phil Bentz and daughter, Lenora, are now at Long Beach, Cal., where they will spend the winter months.

Mrs. Mary Myers left Saturday evening for Deseret, where she will spend ten days or more with her sister, Mrs. Webb.

Mrs. Mary Myers left Saturday evening for a ten days' visit at Springville with relatives.

Louis Doran and party of friends, who have been spending the past month or so in Idaho hunting, returned from their successful trip the latter part of the week.

Albert Cahoon, formerly of this place, but now of Bellevue, Ida., spent three days of this week here looking up old friends and acquaintances.

Dr. W. E. Ferber is home from a week's trip throughout Nevada.

The stork left a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkerson Monday.

Carl Capson has returned home from Idaho, after an absence of three months.

The girls of the Granite High school entertained Friday evening at a Halloween party in honor of the High school football boys. The G. H. S. hall was wonderfully decorated in class colors, with shaded lights, each being shaded with a piece of tissue paper bearing the colors of the school. Two punch bowls were in the room during the evening's entertainment, and were presided over by four charming young ladies, who played the game of the young athletes in the most charming manner possible. This is the first of the series of affairs that will take place at the High school during the winter.

Lawrence Russell left Monday for Logan, where he expects to attend school during the winter. He will study horticulture.

S. C. Hammond and little daughter of Salt Lake were visiting here Wednesday with Mrs. Hammond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott.

The Y. L. M. I. A. entertained Friday evening at the Whittier ward house at a Halloween party in honor of the workers in their ward. The ward house was profusely decorated with pumpkins, squash, and other material which go to make a Halloween party a huge success. A great number of the young ladies were dressed in white to represent spooks, while the young men were dressed likewise. Dancing was continued until the wee sma' hours of the morning were approaching.

The jolly crowd of pleasure seekers departed for their several places of abode.

Wilford Gunderson is home from Denmark, where he has been for the past two months filling a mission in the interests of the Mormon church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis are the proud parents of a son, which was the stork during the fore part of the week.

Bishop Price, who has just completed his new home, was very pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by a number of his nearby neighbors. A host of their friends were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent in the bishop's new home. Games and other amusements were the order of the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served. Politics also formed part of the evening's amusements.

Miss Edna Hamilton, a popular young lady of East Mill Creek, is spending a month or so with relatives in southern Idaho.

Robert Hamilton arrived here from Idaho this week to spend some time with relatives. He will leave the coming week for New York, where he will take steamship for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel N. Hulse, who were recently united in marriage, have returned from their former home in Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Hulse will make their future home in Mill Creek.

A delightful Halloween party was held at the home of Mrs. S. Huntington Friday evening, when she entertained for her young daughter. The large Huntington home was decorated with Halloween decorations, and games in which spooks were the principal characters were played. An orchestra was stationed in an alcove, and they discoursed excellent music to the assembled amusement seekers. Later on in the evening all set down to a bounteous feast.

The Murray First ward chapel Friday evening the primary department, being the different grades, gave their annual school. The affair was in charge of Michael Maus, and was indeed a success from both a social and financial standpoint. The different numbers that were given were well done, and the Halloween dance, composed of eight boys and eight young ladies, was the climax of the evening's entertainment.

George Lyon and companions arrived home this week from the south, where they have been for the past week hunting in the mountains in the vicinity of Ephraim.

Miss Sarah E. Wright of Lehi and David A. Proctor of this place were united in marriage during the latter part of the week. A wedding supper was partaken of at the home of the bride's parents, after which the happy young couple left for the east on their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Proctor will make their home in the vicinity of Murray.

Miss Anna E. Hendal of Granger and Albert H. Mauserman of Salt Lake were united in marriage this week.

POCATELLO.

Mr. Chase, the operator at the Orpheum theatre, left the hospital Wednesday. He was badly burned in the fire which occurred there recently.

One of the most successful and enjoyable masquerade evenings in Pocatello was held Tuesday evening at the Eagle hall. A costume was up from Salt Lake. The party was given Wednesday night, at their home on Center street, where about forty guests were assembled.

Mrs. Peter Thompson presided at the punch bowl. Many interesting games were arranged for the evening, and the guests were afterwards seated at the large dining room table to partake of the supper which followed.

Mrs. Peter Greaves, Jr., delightfully entertained over here at a birthday party Thursday afternoon. A very pleasant time was spent.

The members of the Ephraim public schools are planning a masquerade Halloween party. The ladies having the affair in charge are Miss Ethel Thorpe, Miss Cordelia Dorius, Miss Laura Christensen, Miss Sarah Petersen, Miss Myrtle Petersen, Anna Sorensen, Katie Olsen, Carrie Peterson and Doris Peterson.

Mr. Thomas Taylor is reported to be seriously ill, suffering with a heavy fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Parley P. Christensen are rejoicing over the arrival of a two-pound baby boy.

The greatest success in the line of a surprise party given in this city for some time was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Peterson at their beautiful home on Main street in honor of their son Adolphus, who has been in Washington for the past six years. A jolly crowd was present, and not many minutes had elapsed after the crowd had arrived before a palatable lunch was served. The most enjoyable evening was spent.

The stork left a fine baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hanson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Dan Lamb of Wales visited friends in this city Wednesday night, after having been at Manti to be married.

Mrs. J. T. Wells of Salt Lake is here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wells.

The surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorpe proved a brilliant success. A large crowd was present and a pleasant evening was spent. Lunch was served at 10:30.

Mrs. Ezra Madsen returned from Sterling the first of the week, where she was in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Funk.

Mrs. Charlotte Dorius of Salt Lake was in attendance at the funeral services of Mrs. J. H. Alterstrom, which was held at the tabernacle Wednesday afternoon.

A fine baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olsen Tuesday.

Mrs. J. P. S. Breinholt and their daughter Hannah were at Reardon this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lehi Jensen.

Mrs. Thomas P. Lund returned from Perry, Ore., Tuesday, to attend the funeral of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henrie of Manti were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lund Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Jensen, a girl.

Lehi Jensen of Canada, who came to Utah last week with the remains of his wife, stopped here on his return and visited with his relatives.

Mrs. Joseph L. Thorpe visited friends at Manti during the early part of the week.

The Primary association of the North ward gave a dancing party at the Bingham fire department No. 2 gave another of their at homes to their many friends at headquarters last Tuesday evening. A most enjoyable evening was spent, whist was played, and a dainty luncheon was served by the lady friends.

Mrs. C. E. Adlerly was the ladies' first prize, and Mrs. M. A. Mangrum the second, the gentlemen's prizes being awarded to L. M. Gauchat and J. S. Smith. The consolation winners were Miss Shulman, Sherman Wilcox. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cook, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marriott, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bates, Mr. C. E. Adlerly, Mrs. W. H. Zion, Mrs. John Jinnson, Mrs. C. E. Booth, Miss Jora Hocking, Miss Shulman, Miss Alice Fitzgerald, W. H. Dunn, W. V. Forman, Bert Hocking, Dan Fitzgerald, James Mitchell, Harry Mitchell, L. M. Gauchat and Aaron Gauchat.

Dr. C. N. Ray went to the city Thursday morning for a short visit.

Manager Zwickley of the Miners' Mercantile company returned Tuesday after a short stay in the metropolis.

R. W. Kennedy was in Salt Lake the first part of the week making arrangements for the "American" party rally.

F. H. Freeman of St. Louis, Mo., was a camp visitor during the week.

Garrett Wilkins was an incoming passenger Monday morning.

C. W. Buckholz returned Monday after spending Sunday with his family in the capital.

Alice Morrissey of Salt Lake was in camp during the week visiting friends.

Mrs. H. Clark of Murray, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Bates, the past week, returned to her home Tuesday.

Ben Lewis was in the metropolis during the week.

Jerome Bourgaard was an outgoing passenger Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lansing left camp Tuesday for Ruth, Nev., where they will be permanently located.

Mrs. J. D. Schilling returned Tuesday morning after a brief stay in the city.

Joe Thoracot of Salt Lake was in camp during the week.

C. H. Lashbrook spent Sunday with his family in the city.

Mrs. Andrew Dahlstrom was an incoming passenger Monday.

Alton Jones was a city visitor during the week.

Mrs. Harry Surry was an outgoing passenger Sunday.

W. F. Maxey of Salt Lake was in camp during the week on a business trip for Anderson-Taylor Co.

George Copp and Charles Jennings of the Nine England mine were city visitors the first part of the week.

EPHRAIM.

One of the prettiest autumn parties given this season was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johanson in the city Saturday evening.

The party was given Wednesday night at their home on Center street, where about forty guests were assembled.

Mrs. Peter Thompson presided at the punch bowl. Many interesting games were arranged for the evening, and the guests were afterwards seated at the large dining room table to partake of the supper which followed.

Mrs. Peter Greaves, Jr., delightfully entertained over here at a birthday party Thursday afternoon. A very pleasant time was spent.

The members of the Ephraim public schools are planning a masquerade Halloween party. The ladies having the affair in charge are Miss Ethel Thorpe, Miss Cordelia Dorius, Miss Laura Christensen, Miss Sarah Petersen, Miss Myrtle Petersen, Anna Sorensen, Katie Olsen, Carrie Peterson and Doris Peterson.

Mr. Thomas Taylor is reported to be seriously ill, suffering with a heavy fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Parley P. Christensen are rejoicing over the arrival of a two-pound baby boy.

The greatest success in the line of a surprise party given in this city for some time was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Peterson at their beautiful home on Main street in honor of their son Adolphus, who has been in Washington for the past six years. A jolly crowd was present, and not many minutes had elapsed after the crowd had arrived before a palatable lunch was served. The most enjoyable evening was spent.

The stork left a fine baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hanson Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Dan Lamb of Wales visited friends in this city Wednesday night, after having been at Manti to be married.

Mrs. J. T. Wells of Salt Lake is here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wells.

The surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorpe proved a brilliant success. A large crowd was present and a pleasant evening was spent. Lunch was served at 10:30.

Mrs. Ezra Madsen returned from Sterling the first of the week, where she was in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Funk.

Mrs. Charlotte Dorius of Salt Lake was in attendance at the funeral services of Mrs. J. H. Alterstrom, which was held at the tabernacle Wednesday afternoon.

A fine baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olsen Tuesday.

Mrs. J. P. S. Breinholt and their daughter Hannah were at Reardon this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lehi Jensen.

Mrs. Thomas P. Lund returned from Perry, Ore., Tuesday, to attend the funeral of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henrie of Manti were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lund Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Jensen, a girl.

Lehi Jensen of Canada, who came to Utah last week with the remains of his wife, stopped here on his return and visited with his relatives.

Mrs. Joseph L. Thorpe visited friends at Manti during the early part of the week.

The Primary association of the North ward gave a dancing party at the Bingham fire department No. 2 gave another of their at homes to their many friends at headquarters last Tuesday evening. A most enjoyable evening was spent, whist was played, and a dainty luncheon was served by the lady friends.

Mrs. C. E. Adlerly was the ladies' first prize, and Mrs. M. A. Mangrum the second, the gentlemen's prizes being awarded to L. M. Gauchat and J. S. Smith. The consolation winners were Miss Shulman, Sherman Wilcox. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cook, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marriott, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bates, Mr. C. E. Adlerly, Mrs. W. H. Zion, Mrs. John Jinnson, Mrs. C. E. Booth, Miss Jora Hocking, Miss Shulman, Miss Alice Fitzgerald, W. H. Dunn, W. V. Forman, Bert Hocking, Dan Fitzgerald, James Mitchell, Harry Mitchell, L. M. Gauchat and Aaron Gauchat.

Dr. C. N. Ray went to the city Thursday morning for a short visit.

Manager Zwickley of the Miners' Mercantile company returned Tuesday after a short stay in the metropolis.

R. W. Kennedy was in Salt Lake the first part of the week making arrangements for the "American" party rally.

F. H. Freeman of St. Louis, Mo., was a camp visitor during the week.

Garrett Wilkins was an incoming passenger Monday morning.

C. W. Buckholz returned Monday after spending Sunday with his family in the capital.

Alice Morrissey of Salt Lake was in camp during the week visiting friends.

Mrs. H. Clark of Murray, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Bates, the past week, returned to her home Tuesday.

Ben Lewis was in the metropolis during the week.

Jerome Bourgaard was an outgoing passenger Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lansing left camp Tuesday for Ruth, Nev., where they will be permanently located.

Mrs. J. D. Schilling returned Tuesday morning after a brief stay in the city.

and to attend to some matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Provo, relatives of James W. Hoggan of this city, were in Manti this week.

George W. Hoggan of Salt Lake City was in the city this week visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Thomas A. Hoggan of Lewiston, Ida., spent the week in Manti visiting with relatives, Manti being formerly her home.

Mrs. Rachel Hatten of Provo was a Manti visitor during the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Braethwaite of Ephraim were Manti visitors Sunday last.

Mrs. W. G. Crawford left Monday last for her home in the metropolis after spending a portion of last week with relatives and friends in Manti.

Joseph E. Larsen of Lyman, Wyo., formerly a resident of Ephraim, Utah, was married Wednesday last to Miss Mary McDonald, also of Lyman, Wyo.

Mrs. Carolyn M. Stewart of Springville visited friends in the Temple City during the week.

Daniel R. Lamb and Miss Lillie May Rees of Wales were married at the temple Wednesday last.

James P. Sorensen and Miss Arminie Hatch, both of Koshoream, were united in marriage at the temple Wednesday last by President Lewis Anderson.

Mr. Bertha Poulson of Ephraim spent Tuesday last visiting at the temple.

Mrs. Amelia C. Larsen of Mayfield visited friends in the Temple City Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Bagnell of Chester were Manti visitors during the week.

A number of Halloween parties have been planned by many of our young ladies for Saturday night.

Mrs. Diantha Esplin of Orderville visited friends in Manti Tuesday last.

Mrs. Sarah M. Curtis of Mapleton visited with Mrs. Mary Bryan in Salt Lake.

Rosalinda Alford of Chester spent Tuesday last in Manti visiting friends.

Mrs. Annie M. Hansen of Mayfield visited with friends in Manti this week.

Mrs. Marion A. Cox of Ferron, Kan., is in the city visiting with her husband, who is a laborer in the Manti temple.

PAYSON.

Mrs. Ruth Kinsey of Salt Lake City came down Wednesday evening for a visit with relatives and friends, and returned to the capital Friday morning.

Miss Emma Douglass went to Salt Lake City Friday morning for a few days' visit with Mrs. J. J. McClellan and Mrs. R. S. Wimmer.

A most pleasant informal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac J. Ross last Sunday evening in honor of Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris of Salt Lake, a former Payson girl, when about twenty-five of her musical friends gathered to spend a pleasant evening with our distinguished singer.

The evening was most pleasantly spent with music and in social chat and reminiscences of former days, when Mrs. Morris was singing in the choir of Payson.

Mrs. William R. Heaton and her sister, Mrs. Cora Ashby, who have been here a few weeks, left Tuesday for Fairview, Sanpete county, to visit a few days with their sister, Mrs. W. H. Terry.